

Newsletter January 2021

Wishing you all a Happy New Year!

- Happy Birthday this month to Laura Parrish, Frank Parrish, Bob Johnson, Pat Asquith, Nobby Hackney, Florence Barnes, Sheila Herrick, Linda Parker, Linda Groves, David Scott, Ruth Noon and Lulu Wood.
- We are incredibly sad to inform you of the death of Richard Conway. Richard used to come to our meetings with his carer Sue. Our thoughts and sympathy go to his family.
- Did you all manage to get the answer to last month's teaser? What is always in front of you, but can't be seen? Answer.... The future.
- We need your help – Buddies is on the short list for the Co-op Community Champions award scheme. If you are a member of the Lincolnshire Co-op you can vote for us. The voting opens on Monday 18th January to Sunday 31st January. You can either vote online by visiting their website Lincolnshire.coop/ccvote and letting them know who you would like to support, alternatively you can call 01522 781135 – do not forget to have your Co-op card with your member's number to give to them. Thank you.
- Whilst you are using your computer, iPad etc, you may be interested in listening to back-chat.org.uk it features several interesting interviews with people from all walks of life, some of them are quite fascinating.
- A window cleaner is cleaning the windows on the 25th floor of a skyscraper when he slips and falls. He is not wearing a safety harness, and nothing slows his fall, yet he suffers no injuries. Explain that?
- Thought for the month
