

Newsletter December 2024

Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year

- This morning our entertainment is Jill Williams, followed by the BIG Christmas Raffle draw. We have lots of fabulous prizes, so make sure you buy some tickets! The Plant Pot have given us the tasty, home made mince pies and Christmas cake for you all to enjoy today.
- Happy Birthday this month to Peter Hewitt, Gail Staples, Tim Raynes, Alan Watton, Jane Medding, Carol Yardley, Carol Hoath, Lisa Levitt, Jean Stoppard, Breege Owen and Ann Ransome.
- Did you get your free packet of Jelly Drops last time? We still have some available if you missed out.
- We are very sad to announce the death of Ann Harrison, we send our deep condolences to the family.
- Tuesday 17th December it's our Christmas Party, this is a ticket only event, so please make sure your names are down if you want to go. The party is from 12.30 to 2.30pm, doors open at 12.15. We will be serving sandwiches and cakes together with hot drinks or Elderflower fizzy water. We will have a visit from Father Christmas with gifts for you all. The children from Nettleham Junior School will be singing Christmas carols. (Please remember we cannot take photos or videos of the children). There will be a prize for the best Christmas outfit.
- There is no meeting on Thursday 19th December.
- Next year on Thursday 2nd of January we will be entertained by Jill Williams, on the 16th we have a short presentation on Scam Awareness followed by the Lincoln Ukulele Band.
- On the 13th February we have a trip to the Elite Restaurant for Fish and Chips, this is a free event, tickets will be available from January 16th.
- Thought for the month – Santa's secret to staying jolly?
He only works one day a year!