

Newsletter May 2025

- Today we are celebrating VE Day with singer David St Paul and of course we have cake!
- Buddies Sensory Stroll will be led by Ann and David, after our meeting. Spring is in the air, and now it's time to take advantage of warmer weather, and go for a walk around the village.
- Happy birthday to Loraine Solari, Ron Mallen, Liz Frecklington, Eric Melton, Jim Charters. Fran Pullen, John Horton, Howard Marshall, Gill Gladwin, Julie Kelly, Lynne Walker, Diana Powell and Christine Johnson.
- Congratulations to Brian and Sheila Herrick, who celebrated their 67th wedding anniversary on 26th April.
- On Thursday 15th May we have a short presentation from Dianne Lewis from Public Engagement Team followed by singing duo Nigel and Teri.
- Next month on the 5th June it's the Stringing Nettles and on the 19th singer Jill Williams.
- Thursday June 26th we are going to the International Bomber Command Centre for tea and cake, plus entry to the museum for those who wish to go. This is a free event (£1 for the tip please) and tickets will be available on Thursday June 5th.
- Thought for the month

Spring: the music of open windows.

Don't you just love all that bird singing when you open your windows?
